

Benefice News – Sunday 12th April 2026

On Bank Holiday Monday, I visited the beautiful Brecon Cathedral and spent time with the Lenten meditations on “Crying in the Wilderness.” Fourteen embroidered panels gently guide the pilgrim on a spiritual journey; one that moves from wilderness to resurrection hope, inviting a quiet transformation of the inner landscape. This simple Celtic cross marks the beginning of that journey: a sign of both stark simplicity and deep revelation because, in one sense, all paths lead to the cross and all paths lead from the cross. God is already at work bringing new life as you and I pilgrim through this new week.
