

Benefice News – Sunday 6th September 2026

Through all of the different stages of our lives, we face new beginnings. September heralds the start of a new year in educational terms; whether it be in school, university or through entering the world of work. Daily routines are re-established, new opportunities will be offered for learning and the building of friendships is celebrated. What is important is whatever we are doing, God is always there to support and guide us as we face each new challenge.

Our services and events are as follows:

Today's readings – Eze. 33.7-11; Rom. 13.8-14; Matt. 18.15-20

Sunday 6th September (Trinity 14)
