Perhaps some of you have already gone on holidays. Some of you are already planning perhaps. Let me tell you a story of my plans just before I embarked on my sabbatical. Everyone was a bit confused about the sabbatical; they thought that it was a holiday. For me, however, it was an opportunity to leave the responsibilities of the parish behind and to take a pilgrimage into the heart of God on a HOLY day.

This is how I planned it. I decided to go into the desert and recreate the wonderful time I had in the Middle East. A year before I wrote to Egypt and Syria – what happened? A war and the Arab spring. What to do? Talking to a Roman Catholic friend who suggested I go to St. Francis in Assisi. Great idea I thought but my wife wanted to come with me and at the time we didn't have enough money to pay for us both. Good idea – wrong timing – but we do plan to do this.

So- it ended up with me still not knowing what I was going to do for the first couple of weeks of my sabbatical one month before I was due to go. Inspiration hit when I woke up 28 days before I was due to go. I felt that God said ‘Why don’t you explore some of the desert regions on your doorstep?’

The answer was right under my nose. The Offa’s Dyke runs right through my parish of Wyesham and heads north so that is what I did. The first day of the sabbatical I began with a service at Dixton Church and with a back pack with only a map I headed north up the Offa’s Dyke walk. This is one of the best things I have ever done in my life. The walk from Pandy over to Hay and Gospel Pass on Ridgeway Walk parallel with the Cat’s Back was out of this world – stunning! I felt a bit like Francis of Assisi communing with nature and the elements. I came back really excited – God walks with us at 3 miles an hour and no faster. He’s a 3 mile an hour God. I even met someone on the way who was a counsellor attached to a GP surgery who practised in Sweden and we talked. I had truly met God in friend and stranger on that walk.

Next month I complete the Offa’s Dyke Walk from Welshpool to the very north. Jesus met his disciples on a walk so wherever you are this summer, keep safe and walk with God.

Women’s Guild A huge thank you to Monmouth Rotary Club for inviting us to Bridges Community Centre to share an evening of enjoyment with over 150 Senior Citizens of Monmouth. Members of the Rotary Club served a delicious meal at tables decked with flowers, while David Hoyle serenaded us at the piano.

After supper, entertainment was provided by over 50 members of the Cheststow Castle Singers led by Cari, and including the soloist harmonica player Hugo from Utrecht. They filled the stage and sang with enthusiasm a programme ranging from a quiet Maori lullaby to a rousing Australian sea shanty, and in the end had us all joining in the fun. A truly tremendous evening for which we are very grateful.

Hailed as a great success in 2014, the Yarkhill Field to Fork Festival returns for a second time on Saturday 6th June 2015 to celebrate the amazing array of food and drink produced in Herefordshire.

Taking place in the field opposite Yarkhill Church (HR1 3TD) from 11am to 9pm, the Festival will this year showcase even more of the best local produce available, including cider, wine, bread, ice cream, fruit and vegetables, cordials, scotch eggs, chocolate, puddings and pies and will also host educational and fun activities for all the family.

Adults will be inspired by local chefs demonstrating mouthwatering dishes using the best local produce as well as tastings, meet the producers, a well stocked local bar and live music, whilst children will be kept well entertained with a fun and educational programme of events that includes cookery classes, storytelling and smoothie making.

The festival atmosphere will this year continue into the evening with fantastic live music from a number of local bands. Skinny Sparrows, The Floyd Earl Band and talented young musicians from local youth music project Livewire will ensure a brilliant atmosphere and end to the day, playing from 4 until 9pm.

The Yarkhill Field to Fork Festival is a non-profit making event that is kindly sponsored by Tesco, Waitrose, Brightwells, Freshfields Fruit Ltd and Claridge Nursing Homes. All proceeds from the event will be split between Yarkhill community projects and Martha Trust, a local charity that transforms the lives of people with profound disabilities.

Parking is free and tickets are £5 for adults and children under 12 are free. For more information on producers, chef demos and how to get there visit www.yarkhillfieldtofork.co.uk.

FROM THE VICARAGES

As we now pass those great celebrations of Easter, Ascension and Pentecost, we enter into that long season within the church of Trinity. We start to look at holidays, weddings and many family celebrations. It is also that time to give me a ring, an email or even talk to me and ask me to come and drink your coffee or tea, (please no cake or biscuits). Help me to get to know you better, and you to know me.

Your brother in Christ and vicar, Simon

Hereford Cathedral Visit

On 16th August all parishioners from BOTH benefices are invited to join together for a visit to Hereford Cathedral. We have organised a coach which will start at Wyesham and then pick up at Whitchurch. The cost of the coach and the pick-up times will be announced later. During the visit we will join Choral Evensong and be shown round the cathedral. This is a lovely opportunity for everyone to get together and enjoy worship and experience being part of the large fellowship of our diocese.

Reflection

‘Every good and perfect gift is from above, shining down from the Father of heavenly light who does not change’

(The patron Saint of Pilgrimage – St. James. Chapter 1 verse 17)
April 2015 saw the introduction of the Care Act, with the first wave of measures brought in nationally and more changes due from April 2016. These at last give recognition to Carers, even those who are family members, but many do not realise how the act may affect them. Budget tightening across the board for virtually all local and national public services is leaving its mark, and here in rural Herefordshire the impact on everyday life is resulting in people feeling isolated and frustrated, not knowing where to turn. Without realising that others are in the same situation how do you go about making your views known to authorities? How can local outcomes be judged and their effects brought to the attention of Hereford Council, the Wye Valley Trust, and Commissioners who direct our services?

So what can you do about it? At 11.00 am on Wednesday 17th June at Hinton Community Centre, an open discussion will take place where you can respond to the question: “Are you affected by the Care Act or Social Care Services /Budgets?”

Herefordshire Disability United (HDU) who have organised the event will collate a report from their findings and send it to the authorities.

HDU are a very user friendly group, as those who joined us at our March meeting discovered. You don’t need to have a disability to attend, just a concern for what is changing.

This could be your opportunity to make a difference for the future. At the same meeting providers will demonstrate or inform of activities and services on offer in the county.

You will need to book a place (FREE) which secures a free buffet lunch, when you can chat to other attendees.

Contact: 07817 473813 or email sylvia.nicholls@btinternet.com.

Advance notice for another “Date for your Diary”: Wednesday 1st July

DISABILITY ROADSHOW
At the Three Counties Hotel, Belmont Road, Hereford. This is also FREE.

Details: chair@herefordshiredisabilityunited.org.uk or ring 07817 473813.

From the Bishop of Ludlow

Following the General Election, we again have a single party with a small overall majority. The new landscape with Scotland almost entirely SNP and England Conservative brings with it a new landscape in respect of future devolution, the distribution of power and how government operate. We may be tired of the endless political chatter. Nevertheless now is a moment to reflect on power and indeed how so often we both take it for granted in so many places and then contrarily in other places focus endlessly upon it.

The well worn adage: Power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely is often taken as a way of judging power to be a dangerous thing if not bad in itself. But is it? Very often the powerful are judged with suspicion. Isn’t that adage much more about us and the way we use power than about power itself? If we take a moment to look at our lives, from the cars we drive to the gadgets in our homes to the medical advances we take for granted, are not all of these linked to knowledge powerfully? Surely what power the Tower of Babel may be an unusual place to turn but it does provide at least one way to reflect on this most powerful tool of our age. Babel is a story of global communication, autonomous human enterprise and how it went wrong. That ancient story highlights just how dangerous it can be when human beings seek to act like God, to overreach themselves in their use of power coupled to pride and arrogance. The result is chaos, confusion and fragmentation.

We are now firmly in the season of Pentecost with its celebration of God’s powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit-God’s own presence to be with us and in us. This season encourages us to receive this power and presence. Here is power to sanctify our daily lives, shape our choices for good and empower us to humbly be part of God’s reconciling work in the world.

Alistair
